

Volunteer Service Description

Position Title: Labor and Delivery
Objective:	To provide the volunteer with hands on (either directly or indirectly) educational and real-life learning experiences in Labor and Delivery. To give the opportunity to learn professional and social interaction in a medical setting, by assisting the staff and providing comfort measures to patients and their family members.
Hours:	Monday-Sunday 9:00-9:00pm
Qualifications:	Friendly positive attitude. Works well with patients, staff and visitors.
Training:	Hospital orientation and specific departmental orientation. Will work with the Charge Nurse or Unit Secretary. A two hour mandatory in-service training will need to be given (Mon-Fri between 7am – 4pm) before starting actual shift
Competencies:	Confidentiality Phone etiquette
Responsibilities:	Stock patient rooms Stock IV trays Stock blanket warmers and weighing stations Assist with room set up for new admissions Transport labs Assist with transporting of patients Provide comfort measures to patients and visitors as requested by RN Make pre-admit phone calls to scheduled patients Various clerical duties as assigned May observe procedures/delivery/surgery at the discretion of RN/MD  Please call L&D department if you cannot make your shift 733-1030